

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, November 28. 1702.

London, Nov. 27. This Afternoon came in the Mail from Holland of Tuesday last; That of the Friday before is still wanting.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 5.

Lisbon, November 12.

THE New Levies are continued with Success, the King has already 20000 Foot and 4000 Horse in a readiness to march towards the Frontiers of Spain. The Imperial, English, and Dutch Residents are daily at Court; and confer frequently with the chief Ministers, and 'tis said they have already almost brought their grand Affair to a Conclusion; some will have it that the arrival of our Brasil Fleet will give the finishing stroke to it. They talk here, that this Court has made a Demand of a considerable Sum of Money, as owing to them from Spain; and that they have other Pretensions to make besides.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 2.

Madrid, Nov. 16. Some days ago came Advice that all the English Ships were gone from before Vigo, steering to the Westward. We hear since, That 30 Dutch Vessels which staid behind, are sail'd likewise, and that they were out of sight on the 6th. Our Advices say, There is ground to hope, that the Damage is not so great as was at first apprehended, because all the Silver was taken out; and if any remain'd in the Galleons that were sunk, it may be recover'd; the Enemy took but three, on board which there could only be left some Silver belonging to private persons. The Towns of St. Jago de Compostella, Palenzia and Leon, and the Principality of Asturia, have voluntarily contributed Sums of Money for the Defence of the Country. The Marquess de Gastanaga died some days ago. Letters from St. Domingo tell us, That the Sieur du Caffé's Squadron is arriv'd there with the Duke d'Albuquerque Viceroy of Mexico.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Dec. 5.

Madrid, Nov. 16. The greatest part of the Silver which was taken out of our Galleons before the Enemy appear'd before Vigo, remains still at Lugos. We cannot learn when it will be brought hither; nor in what manner the persons concern'd are to be satisfied; however we reckon it safe enough, because the Enemy did not penetrate far into Galicia, and are now all gone from Vigo; tho not knowing whether, we are still in fear of their making some further attempt upon our Coast; to'ther day we had an Express from Cadiz that they were come agen before that Harbour, which put us into a great Consternation; but since that we have better Information that they were Merchant Ships that came into the Bay; which at first sight were taken for the Enemy.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 5.

Vienna, Nov. 22. My Lord Paget having obtain'd a Passport of the Elector of Bavaria, set out from hence two days ago for England; on his way he will wait upon the King and Queen of the Romans. Within few days Bills of Exchange to the value of 600000 Guilders have been sent to Italy for the use of the Imperial Army.

St. Goar, Nov. 27. On the 23d, the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel came hither with 16000 Men and 20 Pieces of Cannon; and sent a Regiment of Grenadiers to Rhinfeld, who took Post in the Outworks, upon which the Imperialists made fast the Gates. The Hessians summon'd the Garrison consisting of 500 Men to Surrender; but the Commander excusing himself as having no Order to that purpose, desir'd three Days to consider of it. Mean time the Hessians have possess'd themselves of a Redoubt before the Gate, and have block'd up the Place.

Frankfort, Nov. 29. 'Tis said that the Governor of Rhinfeld, perceiving he should be compell'd by force, has yielded to the Hessians; on Condition that the Body of the Place shall remain in the Hands of the Imperialists, and the Outworks be Garrison'd by the Hessians.

They write from Stutgard, that the Bavarian Troops are canton'd between the Danube and the Iler: having their Head-quarters at Ekingen, whence they have sent Orders to the Neighbouring Baillages, as also to the Towns of Ulm, Memmingen, and Lauingen, to furnish them with Forrage. The Detachment of Bavarians that went towards Swisserland is return'd, having brought with them some Mules loaded with Money. They write from Vienna, that all hope of Accomodation between the Emperor and the Elector of Bavaria is vanish'd. 'Tis said an Envoy from that Elector is gone to the Assembly of the Circle of Swabia at Heilbron; where all goes well hitherto, and 'tis believ'd they will augment their Forces. The Circle of Franconia assembled at Neckars-Ulm, and, without doing any thing, adjourn'd from thence to Nurenburg.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 2.

On the 17th ult. the King of Spain parted from Genoua, and on the 18th arriv'd at Antibes; from whence he set out on the 21st to go by Land to Marseilles.

The 8 Men of War that were at Lisbon, are return'd home, 4 are arriv'd at Brest, the other 4 at Rochfort.

From the Paris Gazette, a la main, dated Dec. 1.

They write from Madrid, That the Marquess de Leganez is made Viceroy of Catalonia, in the room of the Count de Palma Nephew of Cardinal Portocarrero, who is design'd Ambassador to the Court of France.

The Count de Thesse is arriv'd at Versailles from Italy. Nothing has pass'd there since the taking of Borgoforte.

Monsieur de Pointy is arriv'd at Court likewise from Dunkirk.

And the Marshal de Boufflers is expected hourly.

They write from Dantzick, That the King of Poland return'd to Thorn on the 21st ult. and that it was suppos'd he had taken a Journey incognito into Saxony.

They write from the Hague, That there is a talk of ordering some Troops towards the Rhine. And from Cologne, That the Forces thereabouts having orders to hold themselves ready to march, 'tis suppos'd some Resolution is taken against Bonn.

Some

Some Advices from Cleves of the 2d, say that the Prussian Troops had block'd up Rhinberg so close, that nothing could pass in or out; and that there was a report that the Count de Grammont Governor of Rhinberg had offer'd to Capitulate, on condition to March out at the Head of his Garrison, with Arms and Baggage and all the Artillery that is in the Place; but that the Prussians insisted on his Surrendering at discretion, being inform'd that he wanted Money and other Necessaries for his Garrison. But this requires confirmation.

The States of the Archbishoprick of Cologne, are assembled at Cologne; And those of the Principality of Liege, at Liege. By the Authority of the Chapter. The Elector of Cologne has Summon'd the States to meet at Dinant, and has protested against all Proceedings at Liege and Cologne.

Count Tallard has put the Troops under his Command into Metz.

The Marshal de Villars has fortify'd Biskwiler with some Retrenchments: and lyes with the greatest part of his Horse canton'd about Saverne.

Prince Lewis of Baden is at Rastadt, having dispos'd his Army on each side of the Rhine, to cover the Palatinat, Landau, and the Hondsrug; and to secure the Passes of the Black Forrest, &c.

Hague, Dec. 3. The Earl of Athlone is gone to Gelderland, Monsieur Coehorn to his Government of Slays in Flanders, the Count de Noyelles to his Government of Bergen op Zoom, and Monsieur Overkirk to Dusseldorp. His Excellency the Earl of Marlborough is still detain'd at the Brill by contrary Winds.

On Tuesday the 1st of December will be publish'd, THE Ladies Banquet: Being a choice Collection of the newest and most Airy Lessons for the Harpsicord or Spinnet, very useful for Beginners and all others that are Lovers of these Instruments, set by our best Masters. To be Annually continu'd for the Year 1702. price stich'd 2 s. Engrav'd on Copper plates. Printed for and Sold by Henry Playford at his Shop in the Temple-Change in Fleet-street, and John Hare in Freeman's-yard in ~~the~~ the Royal Exchange, and at most other Musick-shops about Town. Where is to be had two new Songs for September and October, and the Mercurius Musicus for the three last Years.

* * * The News of every Post-Day's Courant is printed on the Back of the News of the Day before, upon a whole Sheet of Writing-Paper, a Blank being left for the Convenience of sending it by the Post. And may be had, for 2d. of S. Crouch at the corner of Pope's-Head-Alley in Cornhill; R. Knaplock at the Angel in St. Paul's Church-yard; B. Lintott at the Middle Temple Gate in Fleetstreet; R. Sare at Gray's-Inn Gate in Holborn; W. Yeo at the Post-house at Charing-cross; and S. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain. Advertisements are taken in by the same Persons.

††† A Doctor in Physick, Cures all the Degrees, and Indispositions, in Venereal Persons; and by a most easie, safe, and expeditious Method: He likewise gives his Advice in all Diseases, and Prescribes a Cure. Dr. Harbrough (a Graduate Physician) in Great Knight-Riders-Street, near Doctors-Commons.

This day is publish'd,

A Defence of the Discourse of Schism, in Answer to those Objections which Mr. Shepherd has made in his three Sermons of Separation, &c. By T. Bennet M. A. Rector of St. James's in Colchester, and Fellow of St. John's College in Cambridge. Printed for J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and Edmund Jeffery Bookseller in Cambridge. price stich'd 1 s. Where may be had the Discourse of Schism, the Second Edition. price bound 2 s. 6 d.

ADVERTISEMENT.

A Sermon preach'd before the Queen, and Both Houses of Parliament, at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul's Nov. 12. 1702. being the Day of Thanksgiving, for the Signal Successes vouchsafed to Her Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, under the Command of the Earl of Marlborough in the Low-Countries; and James Duke of Ormond General, and Sir George Rook Admiral, at Vigo. As also to those of Her Allies, Engaged in the Present War against France and Spain. And likewise, for the Recovery of His Royal Highness the Prince of Denmark. By the Right Reverend Father in God Jonathan Lord Bishop of Exeter. Published by Her Majesty's Especial Command. Printed for T. Bennet at the Half Moon in St. Paul's Church-yard. And Sold by C. Tye in Exeter.

A Brief Vindication of the Separate Existence and Immortality of the Soul, from a late Author's Second Thoughts, wherein he pretends to demonstrate the Notion of Humane Soul, as believ'd to be a Spiritual Immortal Substance, united to Humane Body, to be a plain Heathenish Invention, and not consonant to the Principles of Philosophy, Reason or Religion. By John Turner Lecturer of Christ-Church London. Printed for J. What at the Rose in St. Paul's Church-yard.

THE Court and Country Cook: Giving new and plain Directions how to order all manner of Entertainments, and the best sort of the most exquisite A-la-mode Ragoes. Together with new Instructions for Confectioners. Shewing how to Preserve all sorts of Fruits, as well dry as liquid: Also, how to make divers Sugar-works, and other fine Pieces of Curiosity: How to set out a Desert, or Banquet of Sweet-meats to the best advantage; and how to prepare several sorts of Liquors, that are proper for every Season of the Year. A Work more especially necessary for Stewards, Clerks of the Kitchen, Confectioners, Butlers, and other Officers, and all of great use in private Families. Faithfully translated out of French into English by J. K. Printed for A. and J. Churchill, at the Black Swan in Pater-Noster-Row.

THE Works of Mr. John Dryden in 4 Vol. price 4 l. The Works of Sir William Temple in 6 Vol. gilt 1 l. 10 s. Keble's Statutes at large in 2 Vol. 3 l. Echard's Ecclesiastical History 16 s. The Double Copy-Book 1 s. 6 d. All the Works of Mr. Toland in 2 Vol. gilt 16 s. And all sorts of the best Plays at reasonable Rates. All sold by Bernard Lintott at the Middle-Temple-Gate in Fleet-street.

THE Celestial Worlds Discover'd: Or Conjectures concerning the Inhabitants, Plants and Productions of the Worlds in the Planets. Written in Latin by Christianus Huygens, and inscrib'd to his Brother Constantine Huygens, late Secretary to His Majesty King William. Printed for T. Childs at the White Hart in St. Paul's Church-yard.

AN Essay towards a Natural History of the Earth, and Terrestrial Bodies, especially Minerals: As also of the Sea, Rivers, and Springs. With an Account of the Universal Deluge, and of the Effects it had upon the Earth. By John Woodward, M. D. Professor of Physick in Gresham College, and Fellow of the Royal Society. The Second Edition, Octavo. Printed for R. Wilkin at the King's Head in St. Paul's Church-yard.

LETTERS of Sir Francis Bacon of Verulam, Viscount St. Alban, and Lord High Chancellor of England. Written during the Reign of King James the First. Now collected and augmented with several Letters and Memoirs Address'd by him to the King and Duke of Buckingham, which were never before publish'd. The whole being illustrated by an Historical Introduction and some Observations, and dispos'd according to the Series of Time. Printed for B. Tooke at the Middle-Temple-Gate in Fleet-street.

L O N D O N Printed, and Sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.